

The 42st International Conference on Sino-Tibetan Languages and Linguistics

Third Circular

<http://ic.payap.ac.th/sino-tibetan-conference/index.php>

Announcement of New Partner: We are happy to announce that the Thai Royal Institute is now a co-sponsor of the conference.

Conference Program is now posted at here. Please note that we are allowing 30 minutes per talk. This means 20 minutes of presentation and a question period of 10 minutes.

Registration/Check-in: Registration and Payment will happen at the conference. To prevent waiting we will be doing the following:

1. Allow pre-registered attendees and presenters to pick-up their registration packs at the Royal Lanna Hotel the night before.
2. Registration/Check-in will be separate from the payment process. Attendees arriving at the conference will be able to pick-up their registration packs immediately and then make payments separately.
3. All attendees will be able to make payment throughout the first day of the conference.
 - a. Payment must be made in cash.
 - b. We will have the ability to change currency and there are ATM/cash machines available which accept international credit cards (machines charge 150 baht for international use).
 - c. Attendees with bank accounts in Thailand can arrange a bank transfer. Please contact us by email for more information.

Presentations

Handouts: bring with you sufficient copies (est. 30) of any printed handouts. There are copying facilities available on campus (cost .50 Baht/page)

Powerpoints: Projectors are available in each room. We recommend using your own computer to ensure that the fonts and/or media files are available. If you cannot bring your own computer you need to check your Powerpoint on the provided computer before the session starts.

Location

All sessions are being held in the halls and rooms on the lower level of the library. An annotated campus map is available here.

Post-Conference Banquet

In lieu of a post-conference banquet we are offering a look at Thai culture at through a Khan Tok dinner. Khan Tok dinners include traditional Thai food and entertainment consisting of dancing from Thai and other Southeast Asian traditions. The dinner costs 300 baht but transportation to and from the restaurant is provided. Your participation is voluntary and you will need to sign up during the conference.

Book Sales

Some attendees have notified us that they may bring along some books to sell. To facilitate this we will be staffing a book table. If you would like to sell books please bring them along and we can collect money for you.
